By a new statute saloons must be closed on Christmas day, which dis-grocers claim that the law exempts them, since, according to chapter 194, at all places where liquor is sold in unopened bottles or packages, not to be consumed at the place of sale, the sale on election day and Christmas day is legal.

Dr. L. L. West of the Second Cong-of the chief ingredients of this world is pain and yet God is in it. All things suffer from this world and Nov. 29, 1849, by Rev. Mr. Cushman of Deep River. The ceremony being per-Augur homestead, which is one of the oldest houses in the state. Mr. Chap-28, 1825, and was one of a family of nine children born to Enoch and Lucy Chappell. He was educated at the academy in his native town. Mr.

Chappell and a sister, Mrs. Abbie Clarke, of Hartford, are the only sur-

He was born May 14, 1831, and is the oldest of eight children of Timothy and Nancy Sanders Pratt. Mr. and Mrs. Chappell have spent nearly all their lives in Chester.
At the age of 15 Mr. Chappell entered the employ of Joshua L. Homestead, leaving the ship sugar trade remaining with this firm for eighteen years. He was then employed for two vice at the Spiritual academy, Sat-he has been a trustee of the First Spiritualist and one of the board of management.

The platform was appropriately decorated with cut flowers, potted plants and ferns and the chairs and table at the door where Mr. Hayes invariably sat were trimmed with similar.
Preceding the address Mrs. Charles S. Twist sang "We Shall Meet Him Over There," and Mr. Ellen read Longfellow's "Legend."
A splendid tribute was paid to Mr.
Hayes as a man, and his long years of service for and with the Spiritual union were fittingly referred to.

OIL AND GUANO FACTORY
BURNED AT SOUTH LYME.
Loss Estimated at $10,000. With Only Small Insurance—Incendiarism Suspected.
The plant of the Niantic Menhaden Oil and Guano company at South Lyme was destroyed by fire early Saturday morning. The building, which was occupied by the company, was burned down at 2 a. m. when it had gained considerable headway. On account of such a quantity of inflammable material being stored in the building, the fire spread rapidly and in a few minutes the entire structure was consumed and a quantity of scrap. The oil had been shipped away, fortunately.
The origin of the fire is not known, but it is suspected that it was caused by a small amount of insurance agency on the property to cover a loss estimated at $1000.
A meeting of the directors will be called at once and steps will be taken to rebuild the factory during the winter.
